Old Republic Home Protection names P.J. Cochran as Regional Vice President

SAN RAMON, CA (April 22, 2010)

Old Republic Home Protection, a leading home warranty provider, announces the appointment of P.J. Cochran as Regional Vice President for Southern California. In a time of rapidly changing market conditions, RVPs provide critical leadership to their Sales Teams, who, in turn, ensure that consistent, dependable, and stellar customer service is provided to the local Real Estate communities they serve.

P.J. brings a wealth of experience to the RVP position, including 25+ years as a Real Estate Broker in the San Fernando Valley, and 6 years with Old Republic Title as the Director of Training and Development for the Southern California region. On the personal side, P.J. is a motivational speaker, an avid golfer, and a self-described "serious computer geek," having built her first computer from scratch in 1978.

As she assumes her new role, P.J. states, "It is a privilege and an honor to have been selected by Old Republic Home Protection as RVP for Southern California. If I am the one to point the way and be the 'wind beneath the wings' of my Team, I am fortunate, indeed, to have their limitless potential and desire to succeed. Together we'll explore new paths, rely on the 'tried and true' and learn more about ourselves along the way. My leadership philosophy can be summed up in one of my favorite George Eliot quotes, 'It is never too late to be what we might have been.'"
