Altruistic Top Producer's Retirement To Benefit Others

SAN RAMON, CA (April 18, 2008)

Old Republic Home Protection, a leading provider in the home warranty industry, is losing one of their Account Executives to retirement, but their loss will be others' gain. Analee Pace, a top producer in the Arizona market, is retiring to become a Mediator in the Court System, where she will help disputing parties settle grievances outside the court system and avoid the expensive litigation of a lawsuit. Analee said, "My emotions have been on a roller coaster since my resignation from Old Republic Home Protection. I am sad to be leaving a wonderful job and countless people that I have grown to love. But at the same time, I am happy to be retiring to a position where I can be of service to others, and give back to my fellow man a portion of that with which life has so fully blessed me."

Analee delayed retirement, waiting until she found an outstanding successor, which she did in Tara Carter. Tara has been personally trained by Analee to follow in her footsteps and continue to provide the best in coverage and service to the real estate community. She has a solid background of real estate industry experience, and is described by clients as energetic, dependable and professional. She is known for excellent follow-up, good communication skills, and her creative win-win solutions.

Tara has 3 years experience as an Account Executive for Old Republic Title Company, and prior to that she was a Realtor®. She has a strong work ethic, and vows to uphold Old Republic Home Protection's reputation of providing unparalleled customer service to its clients. Tara explained, "My clients say that our successful partnerships are due to the prompt, professional and personalized service I provide. You can count on me to give the same valuable service to you and your clients. I enjoy building relationships, resolving customer concerns, and training and presenting products/services to make your job easier. I look forward to meeting you, becoming a part of your team and building a long lasting partnership."
